

CB 2009/10 project feedback talks

Niven Library, Friday 5 February 2010

- 9h00: Counting hippos in Virunga National Park (DRC): trends and vulnerability
Deo Kujirakwinja (Supervisors: Andrew Plumptre, Peter Ryan)
- 9h15: A tale of two islands: comparing gannet condition at Bird and Malgas Islands. Christina Moseley (Supervisors: David Grémillet, Lorient Pichegru, Peter Ryan)
- 9h30: A comparative analysis of recent extinction patterns in birds and mammals. Yvonne Githiora (Supervisor: Phil Hockey)
- 9h45: Small terrestrial mammal community composition in the volcanoes national park, Rwanda
Deo Tuyisingize (Supervisors: Gary Bronner & Julian Kerbis)
- 10h00: Ecological impacts of biological invasions on native birds in Africa
Nathan Gichohi (Supervisor: Phil Hockey)
- 10h15: To breed or not to breed? What causes variation in the reproductive performance of groups of Southern Ground-Hornbills?
Gwyneth Wilson (Supervisor: Phil Hockey)
- 10h30 TEA AND BISCUITS
- 11h00: Take me out to the miombo: mound, pitch & playaz
Ben Heermans (Supervisors: Graeme & David Cumming)
- 11h15: Ant community composition in Chizarira National Park
Allison Skidmore (Supervisors: Graeme & David Cumming)
- 11h30: Cape Town's cats – what is their impact on biodiversity?
Sharon George (Supervisors: Rob Simmons, Justin O’Riain)
- 11h45: The effect of group size, trend and climate on a Sociable Weaver population
Michael Marais (Supervisors: Rita Covas, Res Altwegg, Peter Ryan)
- Apologies: Using tropical forests to combat global climate change.
Ian Kissoon (Supervisor: Jane Turpie)