

SUMMER BIRDING

Whether you're packing up and heading off to a new destination on holiday or staying at home, the summer holidays provide the ideal time to get to know some of southern Africa's best birding areas. We asked local experts for their inside knowledge of the best places – and persuaded them to reveal their favourite haunts.

